The H.W. Wilson Foundation announces the establishment of the Harold and Gail Regan Endowed Scholarship Fund

to provide scholarship grants to graduate students in The Peter J.Tobin College of Business at St. John's University. The Foundation has committed to fund the scholarship program in the amount of $500,000 and is being established in recognition of Mr. Regan's service to The H.W. Wilson Company and the Regans' overall commitment to the mission of St. John's University.

Mr. Regan is a 1965 graduate of the former College of Business Administration at St. John's University and also holds the M.B.A. from Long Island University. He began his career with The H.W. Wilson Company in 1974. Ten years later he was appointed Vice-President and in 1986 he was elected to the Board of Directors. In 1995, following the retirement of Leo M. Weins, Mr. Regan was elected President and Chief Executive Officer of The H.W. Wilson Company. Following his retirement from The H.W. Wilson Company he was elected to the Board of Directors of The H.W. Wilson Foundation.

Gail and Harry Regan were married in 1965. They reside in Massapequa, N.Y. and have two children and five grandchildren. They are proud to know their legacy will live on at the Foundation and St. John's University.

The H.W. Wilson Foundation was established in 1952 by Halsey W. Wilson. By 1957 the Foundation directed its funding efforts to support libraries, library associations, cultural programs and scholarships for library and information programs accredited by the American Library Association.
